In February 2017, the Law Firm RGW Ročławski Graczyk i Wspólnicy Adwokacka Spółka Jawna celebrates 10-year anniversary of its existence.

The RGW Law Firm has been formed in February 2007 by partners Wojciech Ročławski (Rechtsanwalt & Radca Prawny) and Piotr R. Graczyk (Adwokat) who were running individual law firms at the time. Since then RGW has consequently and successfully been realising the objective of performing professional legal services for business entities with particular focus on entrepreneurs from German-speaking countries.

Over the last 10 years the RGW Law Firm has constantly developed its activity and thanks to the specialised consulting services within the scope of civil and criminal aspects of economic law, including the law on combating unfair competition and international trade law as well as individual approach to each Client, has achieved entrenched position in the market.

Since 2009 the RGW Law Firm, as the only Polish firm, is a member of the CONSULEGIS Network that unites law firms from the whole world.

Since 2014 the RGW Law Firm is active also on the German market through its office in Berlin what allows for even better provision of legal services for entrepreneurs on both sides of the Polish-German border.

Consistently with the policy of the firm development in 2015 the RGW Law firm changed its address from picturesque Stara Ochota to situated in the heart of Warsaw Wspolna Street.

We would like to thank our Clients and collaborators for the last 10 years of joint successes. We are convinced that we will still be able to guarantee our Clients the provision of legal services according to the highest standards.
