

Participation of the RGW Law Firm in the internship exchange REWIPRAXIS program

Opublikowano: 4 August 2017 • Autor: Anna Porebska APR

As a result of participation in REWIPRAXIS program, the RGW Law Firm has offered an internship for law students at the University of Graz in Austria. REWIPRAXIS is an internship exchange program organized by the Austrian University of Graz that aims at enabling students to gain professional experience in law firms from around the world. [...]

As a result of participation in REWIPRAXIS program, the RGW Law Firm has offered an internship for law students at the University of Graz in Austria.

REWIPRAXIS is an internship exchange program organized by the Austrian University of Graz that aims at enabling students to gain professional experience in law firms from around the world.

The participation of the RGW Law Firm in the REWIPRAXIS is another element of RGW's support of law students from Poland and other European Union countries through the organisation of internships enabling to gain the necessary professional experience and to learn the realities of legal professions.

To find out about the offer of internship in the RGW Law Firm prepared within the REWIPRAXIS program click here.

Anna Porebska APR

4 August 2017